

Cult of Personality

Activity

1. Identify the people in the lyrics and in the video
2. Based on the song, video, and lyrics what is a 'cult of personality'?
3. Have students look into the 'cult of personality' concept via unbiased internet sources to get a broader understanding of the term
4. Have students identify other people who could fittingly be considered representative of the 'cult of personality'. Choose a timeframe for parameters. Students must support the names they offer as representative.
5. Does the 'cult of personality' depend on one's perspective? In other words, is one person's idea of the 'cult of personality' opposite of another's?
